TO: Rate Service Organizations And All Companies Licensed to Write Motor Vehicle Insurance In Virginia

RE: Private Passenger Automobile Medical Expense Coverage Effective July 1, 1991

House Bill 727 amends Virginia Code Sections 38.2-124 (medical payments) and 38.2-2201 (medical expense) by combining these two coverages into a single coverage to be called medical expense coverage. The intent of this revision is to reduce the confusion created by the existence of two such similar coverages. With the two separate coverages being combined, duplicate language in the Virginia Code has been eliminated. Section 38.2-124 now defines the coverage and refers to Section 38.2-2201 for specific coverage provisions, including the stacking of limits.

As previously required, a limit of $2,000 must be offered to all insureds. However, this does not preclude the offering of both higher and lower limits. It is important to note, particularly with regard to the Special Package Automobile Policy, that the $2,000 limit must be made available on all policies.

In addition, if policies are renewed at medical expense limits lower than those offered during the preceding policy term, an adverse underwriting decision notice must be provided to the insured.

Appropriate revisions to manual rules and rates must be filed for policies effective on and after July 1, 1991.

Sincerely,
