Competitiveness Test Haymarket Exchange

Step A

A minimum of 75% of the businesses in the telephone exchange area can choose business telephone service from among at least two (2) competitors to Verizon

This test is met by a number of competitors, including AT&T Wireless, Sprint Wireless, T-Mobile Wireless and AT&T (see Attachment A-Haymarket Exchange).

Step B

A minimum of two (2) of the competitors to Verizon in part "a" must offer business local telephone service that may be purchased by the business customer without a corresponding requirement to purchase non-telecommunications services (e.g., video or broadband internet service) from that competitor

This test is met by a number of competitors, including AT&T Wireless, Sprint Wireless, T-Mobile Wireless and AT&T (see Attachment A-Haymarket Exchange).

Step C

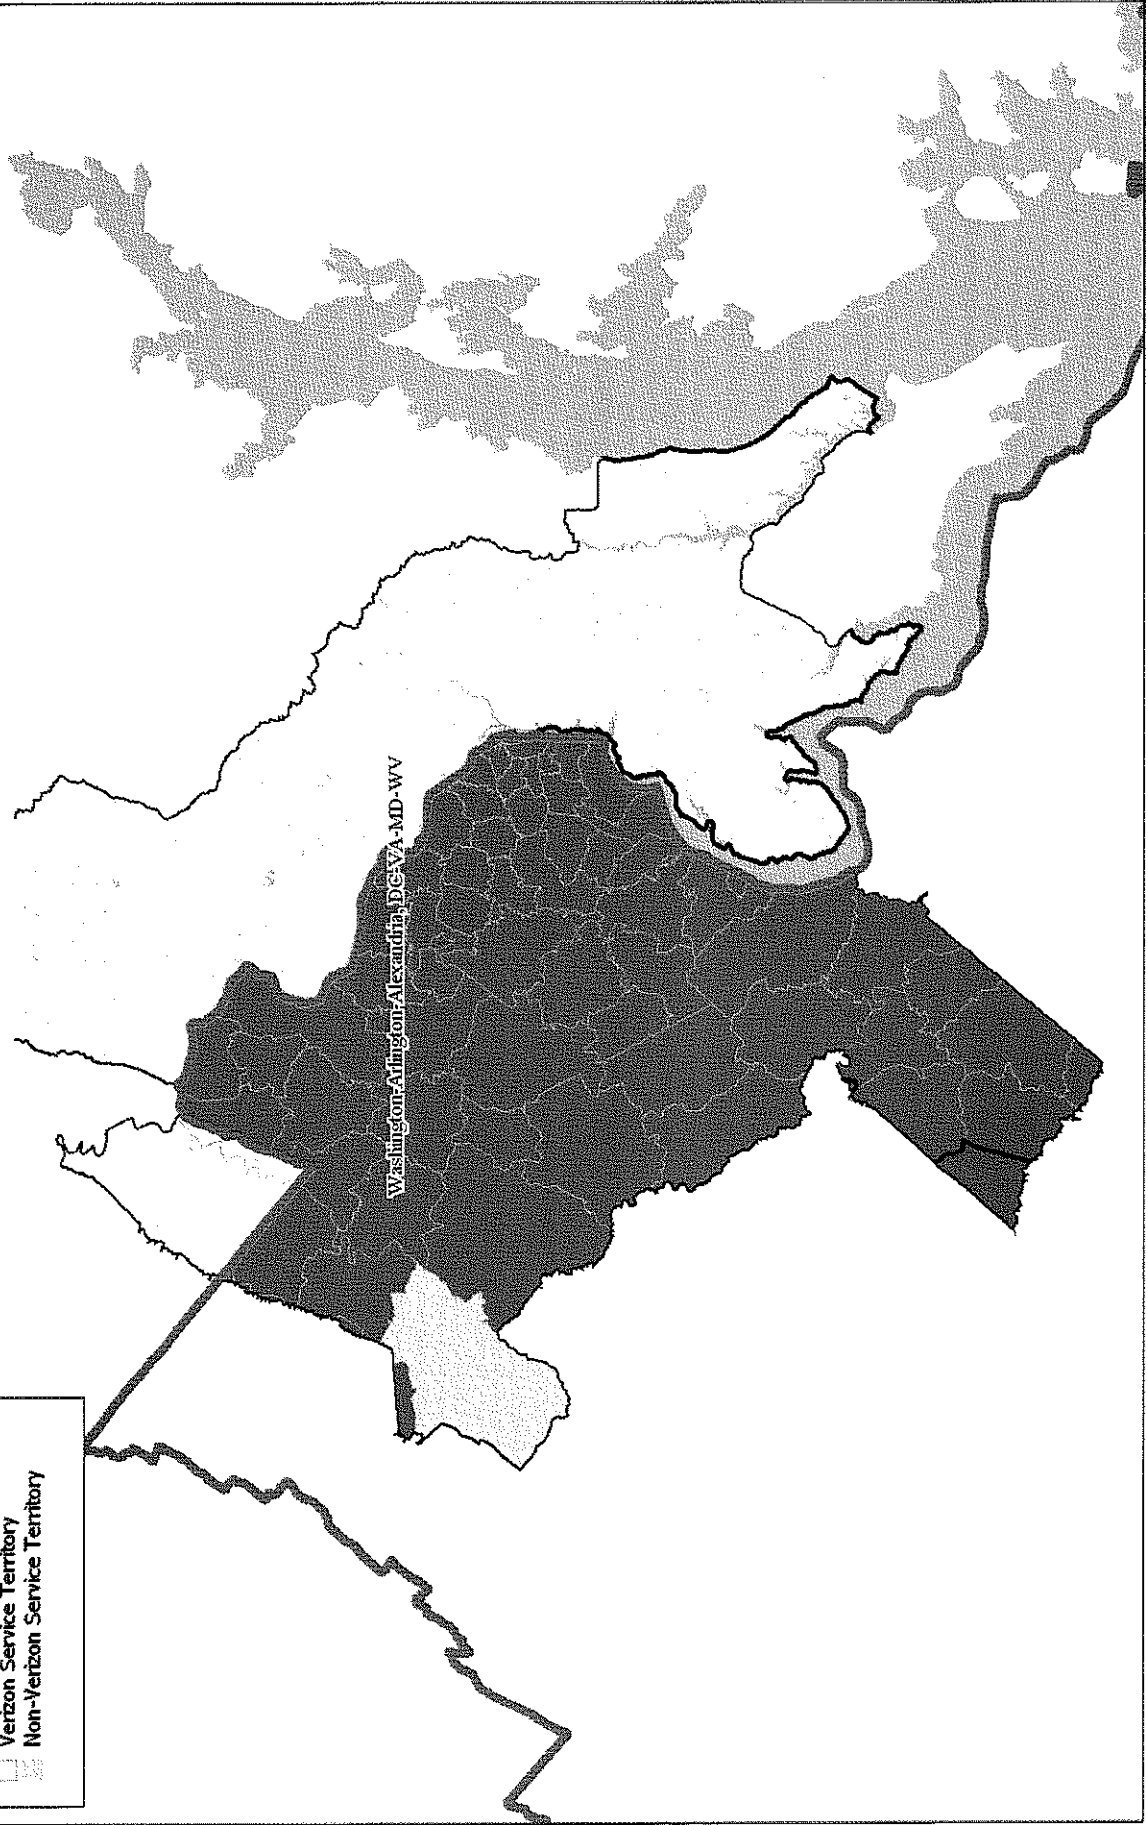

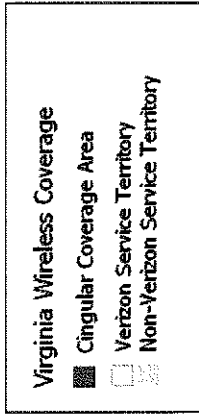

At least 50% of the businesses in the telephone exchange area can choose a facilities-based competitor that owns its own wireline network facilities

This test is met by Comcast. Cable operators maintain online databases of business cable telephony availability by ZIP code. By determining which ZIP codes were contained in each exchange and the degree of overlap between each ZIP code and each exchange, and by manually entering each of these ZIP codes into cable company websites, it was possible to generate estimates of business cable coverage.

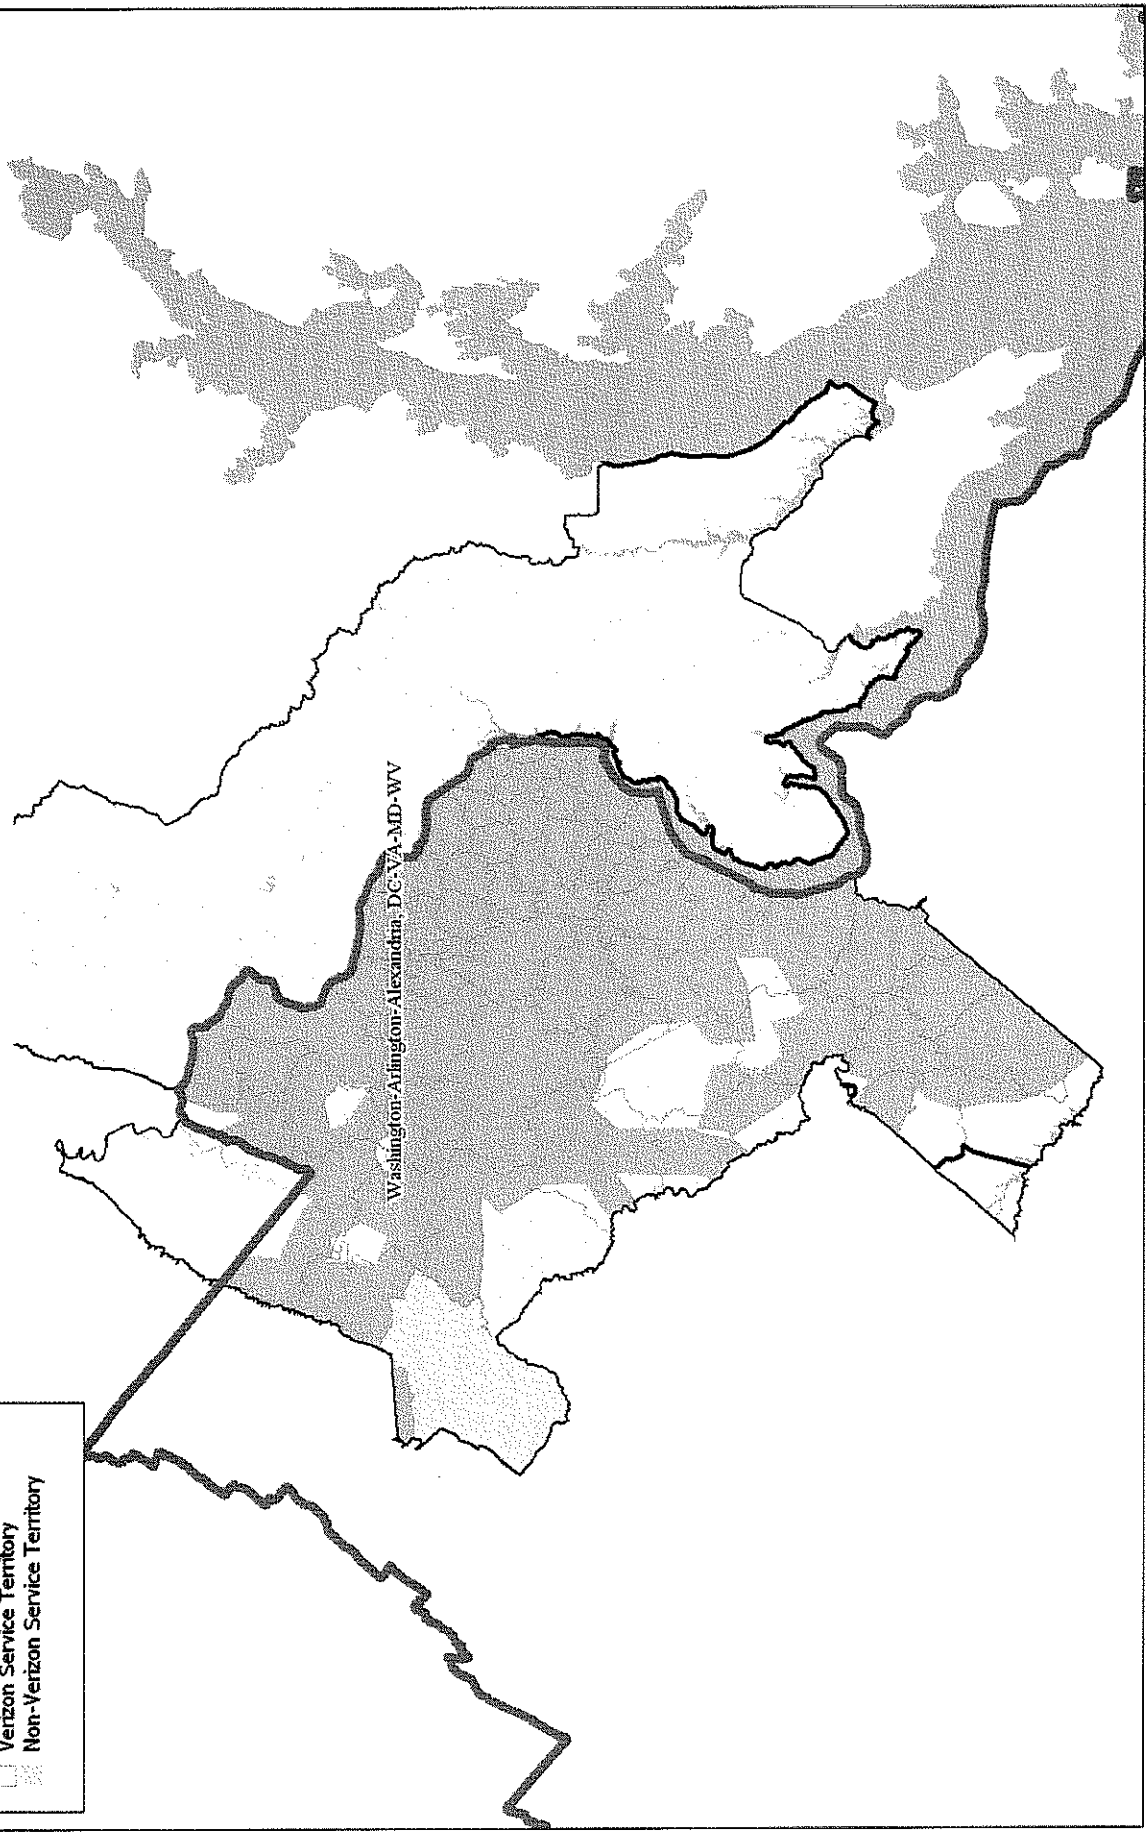

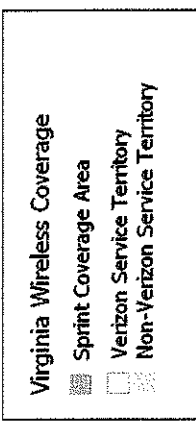

[BEGIN CONFIDENTIAL] [END CONFIDENTIAL] These estimates indicate that cable telephony is available to more than 50 percent of businesses in the Haymarket exchange. This is supported by information readily available through Comcast Websites and promotional materials.
