Step A

A minimum of 75% of the businesses in the telephone exchange area can choose business telephone service from among at least two (2) competitors to Verizon

This test is met by the combined coverage of a number of competitors, including AT&T Wireless, Sprint, and T-Mobile. (see Attachment A).

Step B

A minimum of two (2) of the competitors to Verizon in part "a" must offer business local telephone service that may be purchased by the business customer without a corresponding requirement to purchase non-telecommunications services (e.g., video or broadband internet service) from that competitor

This test is met by a number of competitors, including AT&T Wireless, Sprint, and T-Mobile. (see Attachment A).

Step C

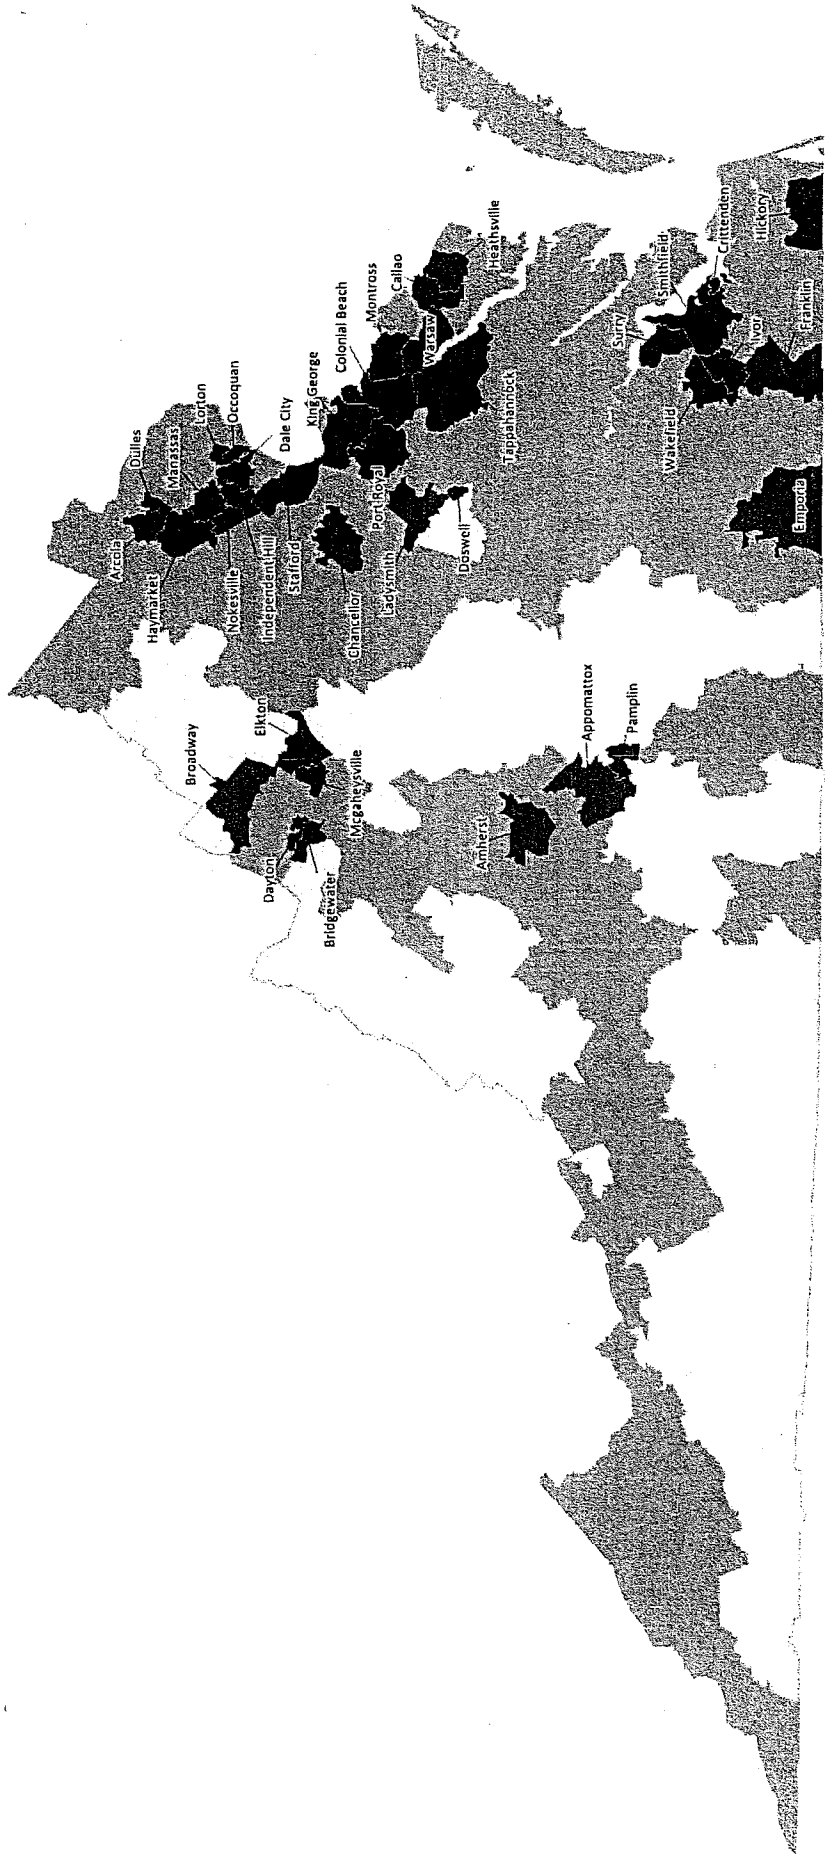

At least 50% of the businesses in the telephone exchange area can choose a facilities-based competitor that owns its own wireline network facilities

This test is met by a number of competitors, including AT&T Wireless, Sprint, and T-Mobile. (see Attachment A).

AT&T BusinessTalk Plans for your Small Business

Share the savings and better manage employee communications

AT&T BusinessTalk plans make it easy to manage the communication needs of your business users. With these plans:

- Share up to 20,000 minutes per month between as many as 40 employees—your light users and heavy users balance each other out for greater savings
- Select either included mobile-to-mobile or Push to Talk service or add both features for $5 per user
- Choose from ten different BusinessTalk price levels developed to help you manage your wireless users
- Add messaging bundles to your BusinessTalk plans
- Monitor employee usage online; because employees each have their own wireless device and number, it's a smart way to control costs
- Leverage the fastest national data network by adding data plans to your BusinessTalk lines

When you combine BusinessTalk with an AT&T Mobile Business Agreement you receive a discount on your qualified monthly service charges for your BusinessTalk primary line and qualifying data plans. With an AT&T Mobile Business Agreement, you automatically become a member of AT&T Exclusively Business, giving you access to additional business savings and support benefits.
