

Competitor Use of Checklist Items ¹
Interconnection	More than 30 CLECs; more than 210,000 trunks More than 25 CLECs; approximately 640 collocation arrangements
Poles, Ducts, Conduits	More than 200 CLECs/OCCs*; more than 150,000 pole attachments More than 200 CLECs/OCCs*; more than 1.7 million feet of ducts and conduit
Local Loops	More than 25 CLECs; approximately 163,000 loops (155,000 standalone loops plus 8,200 provided as part of platforms)
Local Transport	Approximately 10 CLECs; approximately 400 dedicated transport facilities Approximately 10 CLECs; more than 8,200 shared transport facilities
Local Switching	Approximately 10 CLECs; more than 8,200 switching ports
911/E911 and Directory Assistance/Operator Services	More than 25 CLECs with electronic interface to E911 via approximately 800 dedicated trunks Approximately 5 CLECs with DA/OS via approximately 200 dedicated trunks
Directory Listings	More than 25 CLECs; more than 250,000 facilities-based listings More than 45 CLECs; more than 50,000 resale listings
NXX Codes	Approximately 30 CLECs; more than 5.6 million equivalent telephone numbers
Databases and Signaling	More than 5 CLECs obtaining access to signaling Access provided to call-related databases and service management systems
Number Portability	Approximately 25 CLECs; more than 430,000 numbers via LNP
Local Dialing Parity	January – December 2001, exchanged more than 14.2 billion minutes of local traffic completed with local dialing parity
Reciprocal Compensation	17 CLECs, 15 CMRS providers, and 5 paging companies receiving payments
Resale	Approximately 50 CLECs; more than 94,000 lines
UNE Platform	Approximately 10 CLECs; more than 8,200 platforms
* “OCCs” refers to Other Communications Carriers.  Includes poles and conduit provided to cable operators and other entities in addition to CLECs.

¹ For a detailed examination of each of the individual checklist items, see the Checklist Declaration.