IN THE MATTER OF

VERIZON VIRGINIA, INC.

CASE NO. PUC-2002-00046

To verify compliance with the conditions set forth in 47 U.S.C. § 271(c)

HEARING EXAMINER'S RULING

May 7, 2002

On May 6, 2002, Cavalier Telephone, L.L.C. ("Cavalier") filed a Motion for One Day Extension to File Hard Copies of Pre-Filed Testimony and Exhibits ("Motion"). In its Motion, Cavalier explained that on Friday, May 3, 2002, the date for filing its prefiled testimony and exhibits, it provided e-mailed copies of its direct testimony to all parties on the service list. However, because of printing difficulties on May 3, 2002, Cavalier was unable to prefile with the Commission hard copies of its direct testimony and its exhibits. On Monday, May 6, 2002, Cavalier prefiled with the Commission hard copies of its direct testimony and its exhibits.

Verizon Virginia, Inc. filed no response to Cavalier's Motion. Based on the efforts undertaken by Cavalier to e-mail all of its testimony on Friday, May 3, 2002, no party should be prejudiced by permitting Cavalier to prefile its testimony and its exhibits on Monday, May 6, 2002. Accordingly,

IT IS DIRECTED that Cavalier's Motion is granted and the testimony and exhibits filed on Monday, May 6, 2002, are hereby accepted as timely.
